Dedication

There may be many individuals to whom this work might very fittingly be dedicated--men who have given themselves to the advancement of liberty--men who have, in manifold ways brought honor to their country, family, and school. These have, however, achieved a much greater measure of glory by the very tasks they have so faithfully accomplished. It is with true pride and deep feeling that we, the SENIOR CLASS of Destrehan High School, willingly dedicate this volume of the REMOULADE to F. J. GENDUSA, a graduate of the class of 1947, who so courageously gave his life for his country on the bloody battlefield of Korea.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To the SENIORS of 1952 I offer my congratulations and best wishes, and to those of you who worked so diligently on this annual that each senior might have a record of his last year at Destrehan High School I offer special commendations for a job well done.

In the years ahead you will get much pleasure from this pictorial and word record of your student days. When you leaf through the pages of this book, which is a credit to its staff and your Alma Mater, you will derive endless satisfaction, as these scenes and faces recall pleasant memories of happy high school days.

Sincerely

H. M. Hurst

IN MEMORIAM

DONALD BLEAKLEY

FLOYD BECNEL

They left us without a word of farewell--all we have are their memories, everlasting friendship and thoughts of their abilities.

It is with heart-felt sorrow that we the Staff set aside an "In Memoriam" page for two classmates that brought honor and glory to DHS and good spirit in their class rooms. Their gifts in the fields of sports and entertainment will long live in the memories of the faculty, students, and community.
